

When broadcast is controlled by few, there is no longer a place for public discourse and there is less Democracy.
The air waves belong to the people, not to a few mega media corporations.
The FCC was put in place to protect the public, not to give away the basic foundation of the public's right to free speech access.
This action will suppress Democratic public discourse, and I urge you not to allow large corporations to control our airways.